Day 4: Kathmandu – Manokamna Temple – Pokhara: After breakfast, proceed to Pokhara via Manokamna Darshan, Visit Manokamna Devi Temple. Later proceed to Pokhara. Check-in at hotel. Overnight stay.

Day 5: Pokhara Sightseeing: After breakfast, proceed to visit Devi's Falls and Gupteshwar Cave. Overnight stay.

Day 6: Pokhara – Chitwan: After breakfast, check-out from hotel and proceed to Chitwan. Arrival, Check-in at hotel. In the later afternoon, enjoy an exciting wildlife safari in the park, home to various species of wildlife, including one-horned rhinos, tigers, and numerous bird species. This is a perfect opportunity to experience the unique jungle ecosystem. Overnight in Chitwan.

Day 7: Chitwan Sightseeing: Today, immerse yourself in the wildlife wonders of Chitwan National Park. Start your day with an early morning canoe ride along the Rapti River, where you can spot crocodiles and a variety of bird species. Afterward, embark on a jungle safari in a jeep or on foot, with a chance to encounter rhinos, deer, monkeys, and if you're lucky, a Bengal tiger. In the evening, enjoy a cultural program featuring traditional Tharu dance and music, offering insights into the indigenous culture of the region. Overnight in Chitwan.

Day 8: Chitwan – Lumbini: After breakfast, drive to Lumbini, the birthplace of Lord Buddha and a UNESCO World Heritage site. The journey takes around 4-5 hours, passing through the plains of Terai, offering a glimpse of rural life. Upon arrival, check into your hotel and relax. Overnight in Lumbini.

Day 9: Lumbini Sightseeing: Today, explore the sacred Lumbini Garden, the birthplace of Lord Buddha. Visit the Maya Devi Temple, which marks the exact spot where Queen Maya Devi gave birth to Buddha. Explore the various monasteries built by Buddhist communities from around the world, as well as the peace pagoda. Lumbini is a serene and spiritual place that invites reflection and tranquility. Overnight in Lumbini.

Day 10: Lumbini – Kathmandu: After breakfast, embark on a long drive back to Kathmandu. The journey will take around 7-8 hours. Upon your return to Kathmandu, check into your hotel and enjoy the evening at leisure. You may want to stroll around Thamel, explore the local markets, or simply relax before your departure. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Day 11: Kathmandu – Dhulikhel: After breakfast, depart for Dhulikhel, a charming hill station located just outside Kathmandu. The drive takes about 1-1.5 hours. Dhulikhel offers panoramic views of the Himalayas, including peaks like Mount Everest, Langtang, and Ganesh Himal. The serene atmosphere makes it a perfect retreat. Spend the day exploring the village and enjoying the peaceful surroundings. Overnight in Dhulikhel.

Day 12: Dhulikhel – Nagarkot – Dhulikhel: Wake up early for a drive to Nagarkot, about 1.5-2 hours away. Nagarkot is renowned for its stunning sunrise views over the Himalayan range, including Mount Everest on clear days. After witnessing the sunrise, explore the trails and viewpoints around Nagarkot. In the afternoon, drive back to Dhulikhel for an overnight stay.

Day 13: Dhulikhel – Bhaktapur – Patan – Kathmandu: After breakfast, drive to Bhaktapur (14 km, 30 minutes), a medieval city known for its preserved architecture, temples, and narrow streets. Explore Bhaktapur Durbar Square and enjoy the historic atmosphere. Then head to Patan (13 km, 30 minutes), a city famous for its temples, monuments, and rich cultural heritage. After a full day of sightseeing, return to Kathmandu. Overnight in Kathmandu.
