Among the days of the Yatra, today is of utmost significance as we are poised to have Darshan of the holy Lake Mansarovar. En route to Mansarovar, the journey unfolds through the picturesque Tibetan town Dongba. Lunch will be served during the journey. Upon arrival, you will be transferred to a Guest House for a comfortable stay. Overnight stay at Guest house

Day 11: Mansarovar - Darchen (4650m) 50 km 1 hour 30 minutes drives

Begin your day with a holy bath and offerings at the bank of the sacred Lake. After completing the worship, enjoy your breakfast before embarking on a 3 ½-hour clockwise Parikrama around the holy lake by vehicle. In the evening, proceed to Darchen for an overnight stay. Darchen serves as the base camp of Mount Kailash, offering a captivating view of the sacred mountain peak. Overnight at Guest House

Day 12: Darchen -Yama Dwar Via Dirapuk (4,950 m) 8km drive/13 km Trek

After having breakfast, embark on a drive to Yama Dwara (8 km/30 hours), then commence a trek to Dirapuk (4,950 m) covering 13 km in approximately 6 hours. The journey unfolds breathtaking landscapes and promises an immersive trekking experience."

Yam Dwar is the official starting point of the trek; one encounters the gateway to the heavenly abode of Lord Shiva. Also known as Tarboche, Tibetans mark this spot with prayer flag poles installed yearly on the full moon day of the fourth lunar month. The area is adorned with vibrant prayer flags, symbolizing liberation from the shackles of life and death. The group divides here, with some embarking on the Kora trek while others, facing challenges or health issues, return to Darchen.

Note: The client does not want to go for the Kailash Parikrama and stay in at Darchen extra nights. Our company will provide you with the same categories of normal Guest House room of Dirapuk and Zutulpuk. We have inserted just 1 night luxury Hotel room only.

The trek unveils the breathtaking south face of Mount Kailash, revealing a picturesque landscape that feels like an entry into heaven. The mountains, adorned with caves and engraved faces, emanate a sense of divine presence, creating a truly mesmerizing experience. Overnight stay at Guest house

Day 13: Dirapuk -Trek to Zuthulphuk (4850 m)-Dolma La Pass (5600 m) 22 km / 9 hrs.

Embark on an early morning trek of approx. 6 kilometers from Dirapuk Monastery to reach an elevation of 5430 meters, offering breathtaking views of the sunrise over the northwest slope of Mount Kailash. Proceed with a 3-kilometer trek to Dolma La Pass, the highest point at 5630 meters, adorned with prayer flags. Exercise caution due to icy and rocky terrain.

Upon successfully crossing Dolma La Pass, discover the emerald-green Lake of Compassion (Gauri Kunda), believed to purify sins with a dip. Witness thick glaciers on Mount Kailash's northwest slope. Descend gradually trek 13 kilometers to the valley beneath the southeast foot, where Zutulpuk Monastery awaits. Encounter wildlife and find peaceful resting spots on the grasslands. Spend the night at Zutulpuk. Overnight stay at Guest house.

Day 14: Zutulpuk - Saga (4,500m) (450km)

After an early breakfast, begin a 2-hour trek covering 12 kilometers to reach Darchen. Upon arrival, reunite with the group members who did not partake in the Parikrama, and they will be waiting for you with a coach. Then, commence the journey back, retracing the same route towards Saga town. Overnight at Guest House

Day 15: Saga- Kyirong (2900m) (3,600m) (270km)

After enjoying a delightful breakfast, we'll begin our journey back to Kyirong, following the same route we took previously. The drive to Kyirong is expected to last around 5 hours, during which we'll have the opportunity to appreciate the scenic views along the way. Overnight at Guest House

Day 16: Kyirong – Kathmandu (1300m) (175km)

After enjoying a hearty breakfast, we'll embark on a short drive of about 24 km to the Kyirong Border, also known as the Friendship Bridge. Here, we'll complete all the necessary immigration formalities on both the China and Nepal sides. Once completed, we'll begin our adventurous journey back to Kathmandu, covering a distance of 151 km via the same route. Get ready for an exhilarating ride along the scenic roads transfer Hotel.
